Roll call showed: YEAS: Commissioners Trantalis, Moore and Hutchinson, Vice Mayor Teel and Mayor Naugle. NAYS: None.

Mayor Naugle said that this is Commissioner Trantalis' last meeting.

Commissioner Trantalis thanked everyone who elected and supported him during the last three years. Many issues had arose during that time. He hoped he served his constituents well. He felt a lot was accomplished and he was glad to make a contribution to the City. He thanked City staff. He felt the City Manager has a good team who is working together and helping the City move forward.

To each member of the Commission as well as the City Manager, City Attorney and City Clerk, Commissioner Trantalis gave individual words of appreciation, compliments and insight into each one's contribution.

Commissioner Trantalis thanked his partner for his help and thoughtfulness during his term.

Mayor Naugle and the City Commission presented a proclamation to Commissioner Trantalis and wished him well in his future endeavors.

OATH OF OFFICE

The Honorable Judge Carol Lisa Phillips said it is an honor to be present today and an honor to administer the oaths of office for the incoming City Commission.

The Honorable Judge Carol Lisa Phillips administered the oaths of office to Mayor Naugle, District I Commissioner Christine Teel, District II Commissioner Charlotte E. Rodstrom, District III Commissioner Carlton B. Moore and District IV Commissioner Cindi Hutchinson. The oaths of office are maintained in the City Clerk's Office in each candidate's file.

Mayor Naugle thanked Judge Phillips.

Commissioner Rodstrom thanked members of the Broward County Board of Commissioners who attended. She said that she is thrilled and feels privileged to serve the people of Fort Lauderdale.

Commissioner Hutchinson wished Mr. Trantalis well and thought he will be missed. She welcomed new Commissioner Rodstrom. She thanked everyone for re-electing her and announced this will be her last term. She complimented the City Manager and his staff.

Commissioner Moore thanked Judge Phillips. He complimented Mr. Trantalis on his service to a diverse district. He looked forward to working with new Commissioner Rodstrom. He hoped the Commission will continue to address all issues as they have in the past.

Vice Mayor Teel acknowledged the presence of her father who will 97 years old in June, along with her husband and District I constituents. She said it has been an honor, privilege and pleasure serving on the Commission and she was glad to be serving another term. She wished new Commissioner Rodstrom well and looked forward to working with her. She invited Mr. Trantalis to attend future meetings and thanked him for his service on the Commission.

Mayor Naugle thanked Judge Phillips for attending and for her patience in the time his office calls him away from home. He felt Fort Lauderdale is an exciting city because everyone cares. He complimented the City Manager and his staff as well as the City Attorney and City Clerk.

There being no further business to come before the Commission, the meeting was adjourned at approximately 11:30 a.m.
