Case: CE06091655
William Wallice
1540 Northeast 3rd Avenue

Hearing to Impose Fine

Ms. Bazer announced that this case was first heard 3/15/07 to comply by 3/29/07: 1 section at $100 per day. The property was not complied and the City was requesting imposition of a $3,400 fine and its continued accrual until the property was complied.

Ms. Nancy Pelosi, attorney of the owner's widow, Joan Wallice, explained that Mr. Wallice had been deceased since 1990, and there was currently a foreclosure action on the property, on which they had filed a third-party complaint seeking to declare Joan Wallice as rightful heir. Ms. Wallice had not known that these properties belonged to her; a relative had claimed that they were gifted to him during her deceased husband's lifetime. Ms. Wallice had not received notice the prior Special Magistrate hearings.

Ms. Pelosi stated the relative, Mr. Frost, had been paying the mortgage without Ms. Wallace's knowledge, and the mortgage was still in her name. The first notice Ms. Wallace received was the mortgage foreclosure.

Ms. Pelosi thought 30 days would be sufficient time to obtain the board-up certificate. Judge Hull agreed to grant an extension to July 5, by which time Ms. Pelosi should have begun probate proceedings.
